each of the above heads, shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by the said Civil Service Commissioners and the chief authorities of the department.

V. Except as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make, after the 31st day of August next, to any of the situations included or to be included in Schedule A. to this Order annexed, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to regulations to be from time to time framed by the said Civil Service Commissioners, and approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, open to all persons (of the requisite age, health, character, and other qualifications prescribed in the said regulations) who may be desirous of attending the same, subject to the payment of such fees as the said Civil Service Commissioners, with the consent of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time require; such examinations to be held at such periods, and for such situations, or groups of situations in the same or different departments, as the said Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time determine, and to have reference either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examinations respectively, or to the number which may be estimated to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examinations, as the said Civil Service Commissioners, after consultation with the chief authorities of the various departments, and with the approval of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may deem expedient.

[Clause VI. repealed by Order in Council of August 19, 1871.]

VII. In case the chief of a department to which a situation belongs, and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the said chief of the department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the said chief of the department and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that, either for the purpose of facilitating transfers from the Redundant List, or for other reason, it would be for the public interest that examination should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Civil Service Commissioners may dispense with examination, wholly or partially, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person possesses the requisite knowledge and ability, and is duly qualified in respect of age, health, and character.

VIII. And it is lastly hereby ordered, that the situations mentioned or referred to in the Schedule marked B, hereto annexed, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Order, provided that the chief authorities of any department, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, by notice in the London Gazette, may from time to time add situations to either of the said Schedules, or withdraw situations therefrom, or restore thereto situations which may have been withdrawn.

(3.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(SIX MONTHS PROBATION).

At the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August, 1871.

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Order in Council of the 4th June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, whereby rules were laid down for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered—

(4.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(LOWER DIVISION CLERKS).

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of February, 1876.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the civil administration of Her Majesty's Government has, of late years, been greatly extended.

And whereas the permanent officers by whom the clerical part of such administration is conducted, although necessarily divided into many departments, have, in a great degree, similar duties to perform:

And whereas, in consideration of the premises, various inquiries have been undertaken, and various measures have been founded upon them, both for the selection and for the classification of the said permanent officers; of which measures the latest is Her Majesty's Order in Council of 4 June 1870, whereby, or by orders and regulations supplementary thereto, the selection of persons for Her Majesty's Civil Service is directed to be made principally by literary competition according to two standards of examination, and the persons so respectively selected are attached either to different offices, or to Higher or Lower Divisions of the same office, according to the examinations passed by them and the duties to be performed:

And whereas it appears from certain recent reports made by the Right Honourable Lyon Playfair and others appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury to be a Commission for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of Civil Departments of the State, that further regulations are required for the division of duties in Her Majesty's civil establishments, and for the selection, pay, and promotion of the officers entrusted with such duties:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. A Lower Division of the Civil Service shall be constituted. It shall consist of men clerks and of boy clerks engaged to serve in any department of the State to which they may, from time to time, be appointed or transferred. *The term "Civil Service" in this paragraph, and the same term, and all equivalent terms, throughout this Order, mean such parts only of the civil Service as are comprised in the first and second (excluding the third) of the said Reports.

2. No department throughout Her Majesty's Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh, without providing for the introduction of a system whereby such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by members of the Lower Division.

3. Such situations in Her Majesty's Civil Service as are not suitable to be filled up by members of the Lower Division are excluded from this present Order, and shall, until Her Majesty's further pleasure is declared, be regulated, as now, by the heads of the departments to which they belong, subject to approval by the Commissioners of the Treasury, and conformably to Her Majesty's Orders applicable to them.

4. Promotions shall continue to be made, and salaries to be paid, in the case of all clerks now serving, in like manner as if this Order had never been issued. But no vacancies shall be filled up, nor any new appointments made in any department, except by appointing clerks of the Lower Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of clerks serving in such department with higher salaries than those of the Lower Division is not in excess of the number sufficient to perform superior duties.

5. The Civil Service Commissioners shall at fixed intervals or whenever they may, with the previous approval of the Treasury, declare it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for men clerks of the Lower Division, in the subjects included in the scheme of examination known as "Regulation II.," and for boy clerks of the Lower Division, in a more limited number of subjects.

Candidates for men clerkships must be over 17 and under 20 years of age. Candidates for boy clerkships must be over 15 and under 17 years of age.

6. Before any such examination is held, the number of permanent clerkships likely to fall vacant within the next six months shall be estimated by the Civil Service Commissioners. This number shall be increased by 10 per cent., and submitted to the Treasury for approval. When it has been approved, the Civil Service Commissioners shall deduct from it the number of unappointed persons (if any) qualified for appointments by previous examinations of the same kind, including examinations under Clause 11 of this Order; and the remainder shall be the number of persons to be selected at the next ensuing examination. This number shall be published as part of the notice of every such examination.

7. A list of the competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to this published number, if so many are found by the examination to be qualified for appointments in the Civil Service.

8. Each competitor named in a list shall remain thereon until he attains the age (if a man) of 25 years, and (if a boy) of 19 years; † unless in the meantime he has been appointed to a situation in some public office.

Men on completing their 25th year, and boys on completing the 19th year of their ages respectively, or on receiving appointments, shall be removed from the list.

9. From these lists the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of departments having vacancies, may supply, on probation, the requisite clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Selections shall, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners according to the order of the names on the lists; but the Civil Service Commissioners may select any clerk who, in his examination, has shown special qualifications for any particular subject, among those included in "Regulation II.," if special application for such clerk be made by any department.

10. No clerk shall remain more than one year in any department unless at the end of that time the head of the department shall signify in writing to the Civil Service Commissioners that the clerk is accepted by the department. If he is not accepted, the department shall report to the said Commissioners the reasons for not accepting him; and such Commissioners shall thereon supply another clerk in his room, and shall decide whether the name of the rejected clerk shall be struck off the list as unfit for the service generally, or whether he shall be allowed a trial in another department.

11. Boy clerks shall not be retained as such in any department after completing their 19th year; ‡ but they may, after two years (or, if admitted after 17 years of age, one year) of good service, to be certified in writing by the head of their department to the Civil Service Commissioners, compete under "Regulation II.," among themselves for so many men clerkships of the lower division as shall not exceed one-fourth of the number of competitors.

The number of men clerkships reserved for such limited competitions shall be reckoned as part of the total number to be published, pursuant to Clause 6 of this Order.

Separate lists shall be made out of the competitors successful in the limited competitions, and selections for appointments to men clerkships shall (subject to Clause 9 of this Order) be made alternately from these lists and from the lists of competitors successful in the open competitions (Clause 5).

12. Appointments may be made exceptionally to the lower division of clerks from the body of writers serving before 4th June, 1870, if thoroughly qualified, and from those subsequently registered by the Civil Service Commissioners; provided that the age of these latter did not exceed 30 years at the time of their being placed on the register; that at the date of this present Order in Council, they have served as registered writers for a period of not less than three years; that they produce certificates from the head of the department in which they are serving that it is desirable, in the interest of the public service, to retain and employ them in that same Department; and that they prove their fitness by a supplementary examination.

13. The salaries of men clerks in the lower division shall commence at 80*l.*, and shall rise by triennial increments of 15*l.* to 200*l.*. Provided that in any office in which a regular attendance of seven hours a day is required, the commencing salary may be 90*l., and the maximum salary may be 250*l.*

14. The triennial increments of salary to men clerks shall not be allowed in full without a certificate from the immediate superior of each clerk, countersigned by the head of the department, or by such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that the clerk's conduct has been in all respects satisfactory. In cases of demerit, a part, or the whole of the increment may be withheld or deferred, according to circumstances.

15. The salaries of boy clerks shall begin at 14*s.* per week, and shall rise by 1*s.* per week per annum as long as they are employed.

16. Extra pay, not exceeding 100*l.* per annum, may be attached to certain situations open to clerks of the lower division whose duties involve the superintendence of other clerks, or are otherwise of a more distinctly responsible character than such as the generality of their colleagues have to perform. The number of such situations in each department, and the amount of extra pay, subject to the maximum of 100*l.*, to be assigned to each such situation shall be fixed by the head of the department, with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

17. Situations carrying extra pay shall be conferred strictly according to positive merit, and not according to seniority.

18. Promotion from the lower to the higher division of the Service shall not be made without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than ten years' service, upon a special recommendation from the head of the department, and with the assent of the Treasury; and every such promotion, including such recommendation, certificate, and assent, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect only from and after the date of such publication.

19. Below the lower division of ordinary clerks (including boy clerks) men and boy copyists may be employed for mere copying, and for routine work under direct supervision, on the same conditions of service as those at present in force for Civil Service writers (men and boys). Whenever it is possible, they shall be paid by piece-work, at rates to be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, with the consent of the head of the department, and of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

20. All appointments, promotions, and transfers from one office to another shall be notified to the Civil Service Commissioners as they are made, and shall by them be published together in the number of the London Gazette first issued in each month.

ORDER IN COUNCIL RESPECTING CIVIL SERVANTS WHO MAY BE CANDIDATES FOR SEATS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1884.

PRESENT :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Minute by the Commissioners of the Treasury, dated the 12th instant, in the words following, viz. :—

"The First Lord informs the Board that questions have been asked in the House of Commons whether persons serving in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State may, at the same time, announce themselves publicly as Candidates for seats in that House, and may issue political addresses, and speak at political meetings in furtherance of their election.

"The First Lord represents to the Board the grave importance of these questions, and that it is expedient to settle them as regards the establishment of the Treasury, by an express Minute of such a general character as to regulate, without further reference to the Board, whatever particular cases of the kind may arise.

"The First Lord expresses to the Board his own strong sense of the public injury which must be the consequence of any departure from the conditions which, under Parliamentary Government, render a Permanent Civil Service possible, and he points out that, among those conditions, the essential one is that the members of such a service should remain free to serve the Government of the day, without necessarily exposing themselves to public charges of inconsistency or insincerity.

"The First Lord points out that, whatever may be the theoretical difficulty of defining the degree of reserve which these conditions impose upon Civil Servants, it has been solved in practice, as is proved by the rarity of charges of partisanship against members of their body, so that the Board of Treasury is called upon to refer to an unwritten, but operative, law, rather than to declare a new one.

"My Lords find that, as matter of fact, the usage of the Public Departments has been for a Civil Servant, seeking a seat in the House of Commons, to resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner announces himself a candidate.

"My Lords consider that this usage should be binding, and they declare it to be so in the Treasury, and in all other Departments which depend upon the Treasury for the regulation of their discipline.

"The First Lord further states that Her Majesty's Government is agreed upon the substance of his observations to the Board, and that he proposes to cause the result of them to be embodied in an Order to be submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, which, when passed will be binding on the entire Permanent Civil Service of the State."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Minute into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof as applicable generally to Her Majesty's Civil Establishments; and the Chief Authorities of the said Establishments are to take the necessary steps herein accordingly, in respect of all persons serving within such Establishments in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State.

C. L. PEEL.

* This salary was raised to 95*l.* by Order in Council of 15th July, 1881.

† By Treasury Minute of December 14, 1888, it was laid down that no fresh application for the grant of "Duty Pay" could be entertained at present, and that no fresh appointment should be made to posts that now carry "Duty Pay" without previous intimation to the Treasury.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO REGULATE THE PAYMENT OF SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES TO BRITISH CONSULS AT FOREIGN PORTS AND THE DISBURSEMENTS AT SUCH PORTS FOR CERTAIN PUBLIC PURPOSES.

Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87—July 5, 1825.

Provision for support of churches and chapels, &c., in foreign ports and places where a chaplain is appointed and maintained by subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such purpose a sum equal to the amount subscribed.

X. And whereas churches and chapels for the performance of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the interment of the dead, in divers foreign ports and places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the performance of divine service in the said churches and chapels, and are now resident in such foreign ports and places; and it is expedient to afford encouragement for the support of the churches and chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the erection of other churches and chapels in foreign ports and places to which His Majesty's subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of trade or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any foreign port or place in which a Chaplain is now or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary subscription or rate levied among or upon His Majesty's subjects resorting to or residing at such foreign port or place, or by any rate or duty levied under the authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any order for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from time to time, for and towards the maintenance and support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the expenses incident to the due celebration of divine service in any such churches and chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such burial grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the interment of any of His Majesty's subjects in any such burial grounds, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in any one year the amount of the sum or sums of money which during that year may have been raised at such port or place for the said several purposes or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal

Secretary of State be transmitted to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, who shall give to any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid credit for all sums of money not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by them disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

Where voluntary contributions towards erecting churches hospitals, or providing burial grounds, in any place where Consuls are resident, such Consuls are authorized to advance a sum equal to the amount of such contributions.

XI. bond or security, and which bond or security shall be preserved in the office of such Consul-General or Consul, and shall by him be cancelled and delivered back to the parties entering into the same, their heirs, executors, or administrators, when and so soon as the condition thereof shall be fully performed and satisfied.

General meetings may establish rules for the management of such churches, &c., subject to the sanction of the Consul, who shall transmit the same for His Majesty's approbation.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such general meeting as aforesaid to make and establish, and from time to time, as occasion may require, to revoke, alter, and render such general rules, orders, and regulations, as may appear to them to be necessary for the due and proper use and management of such churches, chapels, hospitals, and burial grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper control over and expenditure of the money raised by any such subscription as aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the matters aforesaid, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the objects of this Act, so far as relates to those matters or any of them: Provided always that no such rule, order, or regulation as aforesaid shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul-General or Consul for the time being appointed by His Majesty to reside and actually resident at such foreign port

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Consuls-General and Consuls shall be allowed and have Credit in any Accounts by them rendered, through One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, for all such Sums of Money as shall by any such Consul-General or Consul be disbursed and expended towards the Succour and Relief of Mariners shipwrecked and taken in War, or other distressed Persons being Subjects of His Majesty, and resorting to the Port or Place at which any such Consul-General or Consul may be appointed to reside: Provided always, that such Sums of Money be so disbursed and expended in pursuance of and in conformity to any Special or General Rules and Regulations to be for that Purpose made and prescribed by His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by Him for that Purpose issued, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and that an Account of the Particulars of all such Expenditure shall by the first convenient Opportunity be transmitted by such Consul-General or Consul for His Majesty's Information, through One of His Principal Secretaries of State.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That within Six Weeks next after the Commencement of each Session of Parliament there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament Copies of all Orders which may have been made, since the Commencement of the last preceding Session of Parliament, by His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of this Act, together with an account of all Salaries which since the commencement of such next preceding Session of Parliament, may have been granted by His Majesty to any Consuls-General or Consuls, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, together with an Estimate specifying the total Amount of the Money to be required for the Payment of the Salaries of all such Consuls General or Consuls respectively, for One Year from the Fifth day of January preceding the Date of such Estimate, and also for all contingent Charges and Expenses connected with the Public Duties and Establishments of such Consuls General or Consuls, after deducting the Amount provided on account of the Payment of such Consuls General or Consuls out of the Money applicable under the Third Class of His Majesty's Civil List, as specified in the Schedule annexed to an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland."

*Oaths may be administered by Consuls.

XX. And whereas it is expedient that every Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place should in all Cases have the Power of administering an Oath or Affirmation whenever the same shall be required, and should also have Power to do all such notarial acts as any Notary Public may do; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any and every Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty at any Foreign

REGULATIONS.

Period of Service of Attachés.

I. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up a further period of eighteen months, exclusive of any leave of absence, during either period. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from their posts will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries, and a Salary of £160 a-year.

II. and III. Commissions as Third Secretaries under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l*. a-year, provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory, and that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a year for Knowledge of Public Law.

IV. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l*. a-year. (Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination.) [See also page 236.]

Second Secretaries.

V. Second Secretaries will constitute an Intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l*. a-year, increasing by 15*l*. a-year until it reaches a maximum of 450*l*. a-year. But Second Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l*. a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

Employment and Designation of Second and Third Secretaries.

VI. Secretaries of the Second and Third Classes may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them. They are to be designated as Third or Second Secretary in the specific Embassy or Mission in which they may at that time be employed, but not as Third or Second Secretary of Embassy or Legation.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

VII. Any Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Second or Third Secretary or Attaché on probation, who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, or Chinese language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l*. a-year over and above any other salary or allowance which he may be in receipt of.

* For specimen of Examination Papers for Attachéships, see page 326.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

VIII. In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of Second and Third Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 22 & 23 Vict., cap. 43, from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Second or Third Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted, provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Second or Third Secretary.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

IX. Second or Third Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Salary of Secretary of Legation.

X. The minimum salary of a Secretary of Legation will be 500*l.* a year.

Travelling Expenses.

XI. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, Second and Third Secretaries and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, or other public reason, be allowed their actual travelling expenses by land, or the actual amount of their passages by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another (in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of Second Secretaries, the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one); and they will further be allowed subsistence money for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of one pound a day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations; but the travelling expenses and subsistence of the families of Secretaries or Attachés will not be allowed.

No allowance will be made to Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence.

Secretaries and Attachés may be required to carry Despatches.

XII. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

XIII. It is to be distinctly understood that, in future, all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Peking, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

Interchange of Employment between Second and Third Secretaries, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

XIV. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the public service, allow Second and Third Secretaries, and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the two Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine.

Annual Reports on Conduct of Junior Secretaries and Attachés.

XV. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

XVI. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the Queen to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions.

XVII. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

XVIII. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date as heretofore from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. Under the Regulation as now amended, the time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Secretary of the Mission may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be, at Embassies at the rate of 3*l.* a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 2*l.* a-day.*

* At the five Missions of Berne, Munich, Stuttgart, Darmstadt, and Belgrade, the allowance remains at the rate of 1*l.* a-day. The allowance at Bucharest and Cairo is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post.

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service. Notice to be given of Addresses of Persons on Leave of Absence, and in the case of Junior Members of intended departure for their posts.

XIX. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Door-keeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

XX. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Copy of Circular of November 6, 1860.

XXI. It being very desirable that the Members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service should clearly understand the duties respectively assigned to them, a copy of the Circular instruction on this subject, addressed to the Heads of Missions by Lord John Russell on the 6th November, 1860, is annexed to these Regulations, and the Secretary of State requests that the rules therein laid down may be duly observed.

Foreign Office, May 1, 1886.

CIRCULAR TO THE HEADS OF MISSIONS OF THE 6th NOVEMBER, 1860.

(Annex to Diplomatic Regulations of May 1, 1886.)

My Lord,

Foreign Office, November 6, 1860.

Sir,—I have reason to apprehend that some misconception has prevailed in the minds of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as to the nature of the relations between them and their Secretaries and Attachés, and that they have consequently, in many cases, overlooked the fact that the Secretaries and Attachés are public servants appointed by the Secretary of State to perform specific public duties.

It is to be borne in mind that one of the objects for which Secretaries and Attachés are appointed to Embassies and Missions is, that they may be trained up in the junior branches of the Diplomatic Service, and thereby become qualified for filling afterwards higher and more important situations; but this training they cannot receive unless they are employed, according to their several Commissions, in the general business of the Embassy or Mission.

It follows that the Chiefs of Missions should not defeat the above-mentioned purpose by entrusting, at their own discretion, and with reference to their own personal convenience, the management and execution of the public business of their Chanceries to persons out of the regular order. Each member of an Embassy or Mission, whether Secretary, Attaché, or Keeper of the Archives, should hold in the Chancery the position to which he is entitled by office or seniority, and to which he is named by the Secretary of State; and in no case should a junior be arbitrarily preferred to a senior, nor an Attaché to a Secretary, nor a Keeper of the Archives to an Attaché.

A disregard of these principles not only tends to defeat the objects for which the Diplomatic Service is constituted, but is, moreover, among the junior members of that service, a fruitful source of jealousy and disunion.

On these grounds I have thought it expedient, with Her Majesty's approbation, to lay down certain fixed Rules for the regulation of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations, in which the nature and amount of the business to be transacted renders an adherence to fixed Rules peculiarly important; and I am convinced that if those Rules are strictly attended to, the general interests of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, both present and prospective, will be greatly advanced, and the convenience and comfort of the Chiefs and subordinate members of the service will be essentially promoted.

The principle on which the Rules which I now proceed to lay down are founded is to apply, as far as possible, to Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad the system on which the business of the Foreign Office is carried on at home.

In the Foreign Office the Under Secretaries of State, the Senior and Assistant and Junior Clerks, have their respective duties to perform, and they do perform them without clashing or interfering with each other.

In like manner Her Majesty's Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, the Senior and Junior Paid Attachés, and the Unpaid Attachés, have in Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations their regular and appointed positions and duties; and it is only necessary to bear this analogy in mind, and to carry it out in practice, in order to ensure the efficient and harmonious working of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad.

The manner in which this principle is to be applied will readily occur to such of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as are conversant with the working of the system in the Foreign Office; but I consider it desirable to explain its application in detail.

Accordingly, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation must be deemed to hold, as regards the Chief of the Mission, the same position which an Under-Secretary of State holds as regards the Secretary of State, and therefore the whole public business of the Embassy or Mission should pass through his hands, and, subject to the orders of the Chief, should be carried on under his immediate superintendence.

The public and official despatches and papers will, if not opened by the Ambassador or Minister himself upon their arrival, reach him through the Secretary of Embassy or Legation: and the directions of the Chief in regard to all matters of public business will pass through the Secretary, and be executed under his superintendence and control. The principle on which this regulation is founded scarcely needs an explanation, for it is obvious that the public interests require that the Secretary, who may at any moment, in consequence of the absence of the Chief be called upon to conduct the public business on his own responsibility, should be kept fully informed as to the course of those matters with which he may have to deal.

In the occasional or accidental absence of the Secretary from the residence of the Mission, or from the Chancery, the Senior Attaché in attendance will undertake his duties, so that no inconvenience or delay need arise in the transaction of the public business.

As regards the general duties of Attachés, the Senior will, in the Chancery, occupy the position which a Senior Clerk occupies in the Foreign Office. He will be responsible for the correct performance of the details of the Chancery work; he will assign to the other Attachés their respective portions of it; he will have the general custody of the Cyphers and Decyphers; and he will be responsible for keeping the accounts of the Extraordinary Expenditure, and for submitting them to the Chief of the Embassy or Mission for approval and transmission to England as soon as possible after the expiration of each quarter. Moreover, as stated in my Circular despatch of the 10th February last the Senior Attaché for the time being will, if no other person has, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, been appointed for that special duty, have the custody of the Archives. He will be held responsible for their being kept in proper order; for the correspondence being regularly registered; and for the letters and drafts being properly docketed and filed up before they are consigned to the Archives.

The position and duties of the Keeper of Archives in those Embassies or Missions to which such an officer is attached will correspond with those of the Librarian of the Foreign Office, though his duties in regard to the correspondence will commence at an earlier period than that of that officer. Those duties will be to keep the papers, whether bound or unbound, in good order, so that they may be at any time easily accessible; to see that the papers are at stated intervals bound in volumes; and to make references and Memoranda for the information of the Ambassador or Minister, and for the general requirements of the Chancery.

The order of precedence among the Junior members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will thus be:—

Secretary of Embassy or Legation;
Paid Attachés;
Unpaid Attachés;
Keeper of Archives; and Translator, where a Translator is appointed with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

The foregoing Regulations apply exclusively to the transaction of Public and Official business, and are not intended in any way to interfere with the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister as to the arrangements he may make in regard to his private correspondence. I have only to observe on this point, that if the Ambassador or Minister sees occasion to employ one of the Attachés as his Private Secretary, the manner in which such Attaché should be employed in the transaction of the public business of the Embassy or Mission is not to be affected thereby, but is to continue to be governed by the Rules which I have laid down, and must remain in entire subordination to, and under the control of, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation, and of the Attachés holding a superior position to him in the Chancery.

The Secretary of Embassy or Legation, the First Attaché, and the Keeper of the Archives, should be under no restriction as to the hours at which the Chancery shall be open to them, even if any such restriction is habitually placed on other members of the Mission; and they should each have keys of the presses or boxes in which the Archives and Public Papers are kept.

No person must be employed in the transaction of the public business except those who may be actually members of the Embassy or Legation, or whose employment may be specifically sanctioned for a limited period by the Secretary of State.

I have no doubt that a strict adherence to the Rules I have thus laid down will tend to the regular dispatch of public business, and to the maintenance of harmony among the different members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service; while it will also be advantageous to the Chiefs of Missions. It is not my intention by these Regulations to prescribe to those Chiefs any obligation of consulting or of being guided by the opinion of any of the subordinate members of their Mission. On those Chiefs rests the responsibility of the decisions they may come to, and of any course they may determine to pursue, and with them, therefore, must also rest the free choice of the means for arriving at their decisions.

My object in the present communication is to provide that those persons who are appointed by the Secretary of State to definite situations and ranks in Her Majesty's Embassies and Missions shall be employed in the transaction of the public business of such Embassies and Missions in accordance with the purposes for which their appointments have been created.

I am, &c.

J. RUSSELL.

1. These appointments, the number of which is limited to three, are open to Clerks on the establishment of the Foreign Office, after completion of one year's service, and may be held until the rank of Assistant or Acting Assistant Clerk is attained.

2. Candidates will be required to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess the requisite practical knowledge of the languages in which they are examined, and that they are able to translate such languages quickly and correctly into good English. In the event of two or more candidates presenting themselves for one vacancy, the candidate who obtains the largest number of marks will receive the appointment. The qualifying languages will be either Italian, or Spanish, or Russian, in addition to which candidates must pass a test examination in German. The Translators will not be required to pass examinations in Dutch, Danish, Portuguese, or Swedish, unless they wish to do so; but the Secretary of State expects that they will among them acquire sufficient proficiency in those languages to make translations from them if required.

Two of these allowances cannot be permanently held by the same Translator.

3. The Translators will be expected to prepare all translations required for the use of the Foreign Office.

In case, however, of great pressure, or of documents being received in any languages other than those mentioned above, assistance may be obtained through the Civil Service Commissioners on sanction being received from the Under-Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it desirable, appoint any Clerk who has held such an acting appointment to the next actual vacancy among the Translators, without further examination.

7. In case there should be no candidate for a vacant Translatorship, or that the candidates should fail to pass the necessary examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, one or both the other Translators will be permitted, if duly qualified, to undertake temporarily the duties of the vacant appointment, and to receive the allowance attached to it, on the understanding that the vacancy will be filled up as soon as circumstances will permit.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those previously in force.

(In force, January 1889.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Excepting in the case of special complimentary missions to Foreign Sovereigns, such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, February 3, 1886.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or Navy, should be addressed to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be, who, if they see fit, may submit the same for Her Majesty's sanction, upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without other formality.

2. Any other British subject, having obtained Her Majesty's permission, is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

SALISBURY.

Act 12 and 13 Vict., c. 68.—July 28, 1849.

Marriages solemnized abroad in manner provided by this Act to be valid.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to relieve His Majesty's Subjects from all Doubt concerning the Validity of certain Marriages solemnized abroad;" And whereas the provisions of the said Act are applicable only to the cases of marriages solemnized by a minister of the Church of England in the chapel or house of any British Ambassador or Minister residing within the country to the Court of which he is accredited, or in the chapel belonging to any British factory abroad, or in the house of any British subject residing at such factory, and of marriages solemnized within the British lines by any Chaplain or Officer, or other person officiating under the orders of the commanding officer of a British army serving abroad: And whereas large numbers of Her Majesty's subjects are resident abroad at places where the provisions of the said Act are not applicable: And whereas it is expedient to afford greater facilities for the marriage of Her Majesty's subjects resident abroad: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that all marriages (both or one of the parties thereto being subjects or a subject of this realm) which from and after the passing of this Act shall be solemnized in the manner in this Act provided in any foreign country or place where there shall be a British Consul duly authorized to act in such foreign country or place under this Act shall be deemed and held to be as valid in the law as if the same had been solemnized within Her Majesty's dominions with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Notice of every intended marriage to be given to Consul.

2. And be it enacted, that in every case of marriage intended to be solemnized under the provisions of this Act one of the parties shall give notice under his or her hand, in the form of the Schedule (A) to this annexed, or to the like effect, to the Consul within whose district both the parties shall have dwelt, not less than one calendar month then next preceding, and shall state therein the name and surname and the profession or condition of each of the said parties intending marriage, the dwelling-place of each of them, and that each of them has dwelt within such district during such one calendar month at the least.

Consul to file notices, register them in a book, and suspend copies in the office of the Consulate.

3. And be it enacted, that the Consul shall file all such notices, and keep them with the archives of his Consulate, and shall also forthwith enter a true and exact copy of every such notice fairly into a register to be by him kept for that purpose, and shall likewise suspend a like true and exact copy of every such notice in some conspicuous place in the office of his Consulate during seven successive days, if the marriage is to be solemnized by licence, or twenty-one successive days if the marriage is to be solemnized without licence, before any marriage shall be solemnized in pursuance of such notice; and the said register and suspended copies shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to the inspection of persons desirous of inspecting the same; and upon the receipt of every such notice, and before registering and suspending the same, the Consul shall be entitled to have a fee of ten shillings.

Persons duly authorized may forbid the solemnization of any marriage.

4. And be it enacted, that any person authorized in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned may, at any time before the solemnization of any such intended marriage, forbid the solemnization of such intended marriage, by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the register, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and his or her character in relation to either of the parties by reason of which he or she is so authorized; and in case the solemnization of any such intended marriage shall be so forbidden the notice shall be void, and such intended marriage shall not be solemnized under such notice.

Like consent to any marriage by licence as is required in England.

5. And be it enacted, that the like consent shall be required to any marriage by licence under the provisions of this Act as is now required by law to marriages solemnized in England by licence; and every person whose consent to a marriage by licence is required by law is hereby authorized to forbid a marriage under the provisions of this Act, whether such marriage is intended to be by licence or without licence.

Consul may grant licences for marriage.

6. And be it enacted, that before any marriage by licence shall be solemnized under this Act both the parties intending marriage shall appear before the Consul, and each of them shall make oath, or shall make his or her solemn affirmation or declaration instead of an oath, that he or she believeth that there is not any impediment of kindred or alliance, or other lawful hindrance, to the said marriage, and that both of the said parties have for the space of one calendar month immediately preceding respectively had their usual places of abode within the district of such Consul, and where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, shall be under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the person or persons whose consent to such marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or that there is no person having authority to give such consent, as the case may be; and when and as soon as such oath, affirmation, or declaration shall have been made, the Consul shall, on payment of a fee of twenty shillings, certify under his hand on the original notice and also in the register that licence has been granted for the solemnization of the marriage in respect of which such notice was given; and such certificate shall be deemed and taken to be a licence for such marriage.

Caveat against marriages may be lodged with Consul.

7. And be it enacted, that any person, on payment of a fee of twenty shillings to the Consul, may enter a caveat with the Consul against the solemnization of the marriage of any person named therein, such caveat being signed by or on behalf of the person who enters the same, and stating his or her place of residence, and the ground of objection on which his or her caveat is founded; and if any caveat be entered as aforesaid no marriage of the person named therein shall be solemnized until the Consul shall have examined into the matter of the caveat, and shall be satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the solemnization of the said marriage, or until the caveat shall be withdrawn by the party who entered the same; and in cases of doubt it shall be lawful for the Consul to transmit to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a copy of such caveat, with such statement in relation thereto as such Consul may think fit, and such Secretary of State shall refer the same to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, for his decision; and the said Registrar-General, having decided thereon, shall transmit his decision in writing to the said Secretary of State, who shall communicate the same to the said Consul: Provided always, that in case the Consul refuse to solemnize or to allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring such marriage to be solemnized, such person shall have a right of appeal to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who shall thereupon either confirm the refusal or direct the solemnization of the marriage.

When marriages not solemnized within three months a new notice required.

8. And be it enacted, that whenever any marriage shall not be had within three calendar months next after notice shall have been so given to and entered by the Consul as aforesaid, or where, in the case of any such caveat as aforesaid, a statement shall have been transmitted as aforesaid, or where, on such refusal as aforesaid of the Consul, a person shall appeal as aforesaid, and the marriage shall be directed to be solemnized, then, within three calendar months after the receipt from the Secretary of State of the decision with respect to such caveat or on such appeal, the notice shall be void; and the marriage in respect of which such notice was given shall not be solemnized until a new notice shall have been given, and copies thereof entered in the register, and suspended in the office of the Consulate, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

After seven days by licence, or twenty-one days without licence, marriages may be solemnized at the British Consulate by or in the presence of the Consul and two witnesses.

9. And be it enacted, that after the expiration of seven days if the marriage is by licence, or of twenty-one days if the marriage is without licence, after notice shall have been so given to and entered by the Consul as aforesaid, provided no lawful impediment be shown to the satisfaction of the Consul why the marriage should not be solemnized, and that the marriage has not been forbidden in manner herein provided, it shall be lawful for the Consul to solemnize, or allow to be solemnized by any other person in his presence, the marriage in respect of which such notice shall have been given, between and by the parties described in such notice; and every such marriage shall be solemnized at the British Consulate, with open doors, between the hours of eight and twelve in the forenoon, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and may be solemnized, in the presence of the Consul, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, or according to such other form and ceremony as the parties thereto may see fit to adopt, or may, where the parties shall so desire, be solemnized by the Consul; and in the solemnization of every such marriage not solemnized according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, in some part of the ceremony, and in the presence of the Consul and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare,

"I do solemnly declare, that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D."

And each of the parties shall say to the other, "I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A. B., do take thee, C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]."

Marriage fees to the Consul.

10. And be it enacted, that the Consul shall be entitled, for every marriage which shall be solemnized under this Act by him or in his presence, to have from the parties married the sum of twenty shillings, if the marriage shall be by licence, and otherwise the sum of ten shillings.

Consul to register marriages in duplicate in books to be sent by the Registrar-General through the Secretary of State.

11. And be it enacted, that the Consul shall forthwith register in duplicate every marriage solemnized as aforesaid in two marriage register books to be furnished to him for that purpose from time to time by the Registrar-General (through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State), according to the form provided for the registration of marriages by an Act of the seventh year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intitled, "An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England," or as near to such form as the difference of the circumstances will admit of; and the entry in each such book of every such marriage shall be signed by the person by whom the marriage shall have been solemnized, if there shall be any such person other than the Consul, and by the Consul and both the parties married, and attested by two witnesses; and all such entries shall be made in regular order from the beginning to the end of each such book, and the number of the place of entry in each duplicate marriage book shall be the same.

Copies of the marriage register book to be forwarded yearly to the Secretary of State.

12. And be it enacted that in the month of January in every year every Consul shall make and transmit to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General, a true copy certified by such Consul under his hand and Consular seal, according to the form in the Schedule (B) to this Act annexed, of all the entries of marriages during the preceding year in the register book kept by him; and if there shall have been no marriage registered during such preceding year, the Consul shall certify such fact under his hand and Consular seal; and the Consul shall keep the said duplicate marriage register books safely until the same shall be filled, and one of such duplicate marriage register books, when filled, shall be transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General.

Proof of residence of parties or consent not necessary to establish marriage.

13. And be it enacted, that after any marriage shall have been solemnized under this Act, it shall not be necessary, in support of such marriage, to give any proof of the actual dwelling for the time required by this Act for either of the parties, previous to the marriage, within the district wherein such marriage was solemnized, or of the consent of any person whose consent thereto is required by law, nor shall any evidence to prove the contrary be given in any suit touching the validity of such marriage.

Consul may ask certain particulars of parties.

14. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Consul by whom or in whose presence any marriage is solemnized under this Act to ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching such marriage.

In case of fraudulent marriage, the guilty party to forfeit all property accruing from the marriage, as in 4 Geo. IV, cap. 76.

15. And be it enacted, that if any marriage shall be had under the provisions of this Act by means of any wilfully false notice, oath, affirmation, or declaration made by either party to such marriage, as to any matter to which a notice, oath, affirmation, or declaration is by this Act required, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney-General or Solicitor-General to sue for the forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property accruing to the offending party by such marriage; and the proceedings thereupon, and the consequences thereof, shall be the same as are provided by law in the like case with regard to marriages solemnized by license in England according to the rites of the Church of England.

Persons taking false oaths, &c., guilty of perjury.

16. And be it enacted, that every person who shall knowingly and wilfully make any oath, affirmation, or declaration, or sign any false notice required by this Act, for the purpose of procuring any marriage, and any person who shall forbid any such marriage by falsely representing himself or herself to be a person whose consent to such marriage is required by law, knowing such representation to be false, shall suffer the penalties of perjury; and such offender may be tried in any county or place in England in the same manner and may be dealt with in all respects as if the offence had been committed in such county or place in England.

The certificate of Consul to be evidence.

17. And be it enacted, that in any and every action or suit for forfeiture, and upon any and every prosecution for perjury, as aforesaid, the declaration and certificate of the Consul, under his hand and Consular seal, shall be received and taken as good and valid evidence in the law of all facts and matters stated in such declaration and certificate, without its being necessary for the said Consul to attend in person to prove the same.

Provisions of Registration Act extended to this Act.

18. And be it enacted, that this Act shall be taken to be part of the said Act for registering births, deaths, and marriages in England as fully and effectually as if incorporated therewith; and that every Consul shall be deemed a Registrar under the said Act; and that all the provisions and penalties of the said Act relating to any Registrar, or register of marriages or certified copies thereof, shall be taken to extend to every such Consul, and the registers of marriages under this Act, and to the certified copies thereof, so far as the same are applicable thereto.

Consuls may be authorized by Secretary of State to solemnize marriages.

19. And be it enacted, that every British Consul-General and Consul already appointed or hereafter to be appointed to reside in any foreign country or place, who shall be directed or authorized, by writing under the hand of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to solemnize and register marriages, and any person duly authorized to act in the absence of such Consul, or in any foreign place where there is no British Consul resident, any Vice-Consul or Consular Agent who shall be directed or authorized as aforesaid by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to solemnize and register marriages in such place, shall, in the country or place in which he is so appointed to reside, or in which he is directed or authorized to solemnize and register marriages as aforesaid, be a Consul duly authorized for all the purposes of this Act; and in the construction of this Act the term "Consul" shall (save where such construction would be inconsistent with the context) be construed to mean a Consul so authorized; and the district of every such Consul for the purposes of this Act shall be all or such parts of the foreign country in which (or at a place within which) such Consul is appointed to reside, or is so directed or authorized as aforesaid, as such Secretary of State may, by such writing under his hand, direct, or, where there shall be no direction in his behalf, shall be the district of the Consulate of such Consul.

Certain past marriages confirmed.

20. And whereas many marriages have been entered into abroad by British subjects under circumstances which may occasion doubts as to the validity of such marriages, and it is expedient that such marriages should be confirmed in the cases hereinafter mentioned: Be it enacted, that all marriages, both or one of the parties being subjects or a subject of this realm, which, before the passing of this Act, have been solemnized in any foreign country or place, or on board a British vessel of war on any foreign station, by a minister in Holy Orders according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, or of Ireland, or of the United Church of England and Ireland, or by an ordained minister of the Church of Scotland; and all marriages of the like parties which have been solemnized according to any religious rites or ceremonies or contracted per verba de presenti in any foreign country or place, in the presence of any British Ambassador, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul exercising his functions within the foreign country or place in which such marriages have been had, or on board a British vessel of war on any foreign station in the presence of the officer commanding such vessel; and all marriages of the like parties which have been solemnized according to any religious rites or ceremonies or contracted per verba de presenti in any foreign country or place, and registered by or under the authority of any British Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul exercising his functions within such foreign country or place, the signatures of the parties being written in the register, shall be deemed and held to be as valid in the law, and cognizable in the like manner as if the same had been solemnized within Her Majesty's dominions with a due observance of all forms required by law: Provided always, that this enactment shall not extend to render valid any marriage which before the passing of this Act has been declared invalid by any Court of competent jurisdiction in any proceeding touching such marriage, or any right dependent on the validity or invalidity thereof, or any marriage where either of the parties has afterwards, during the life of the other, lawfully intermarried with any other person.

Extent of Act.

21. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall confirm or impair, or in anywise affect, or be construed to confirm or impair, or in anywise affect, the validity in law of any marriage solemnized beyond the seas, otherwise than as herein provided; and this Act shall not extend to the marriage of any of the Royal Family.

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871 (34 and 35 Vict., c. 36).*

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3*l.* 3*s.* within 80 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

An Act to provide for the Payment of DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the payment of the salaries, allowances, and pensions of persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service out of moneys provided by Parliament instead of out of the Consolidated Fund, and otherwise to amend the law respecting the same:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

1 This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Commencement of Act.

2 This Act shall come into operation as on and from the 1st day of April, 1869, which day is in this Act referred to as "the commencement of this Act."

Interpretation of Terms.

3 In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—The term "Treasury" means the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, and part of Sections 12 and 13 of 2 & 3 Wm. IV., cap. 116, and 22 & 23 Vict., cap. 5, repealed.

4* Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Act of the session of the 2nd and 3rd Years of William IV., chapter 116, "to provide for the salaries of certain high and judicial officers, and payments hitherto made out of the Civil List revenues," and so much of sections 12 and 13 of the same Act as relates to diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions, and the whole of the Act of the session of the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 5, "to remove doubts as to the qualification of persons holding diplomatic pensions to sit in Parliament," are hereby repealed, as from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect any pensions now payable under the said Act; and those pensions shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the accounts thereof shall be laid before Parliament in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5 After the commencement of this Act all salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6 After the commencement of this Act the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases; and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

- (1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
- (2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
- (3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
- (4.) 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for Pension.

7 With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:
- (2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:
- (3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class, or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States, where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalid Secretaries.

8 Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9 Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

* The first paragraph of this Section was repealed by Act 46 and 47 Vict., c. 39.

(Diplomatic.)

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

Determination of Class of Missions.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versa.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be Free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may Sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., Chapter 24, and of the 22nd year of Her Majesty, Chapter 26, regulate the conditions on which pensions, compensations, and allowances shall be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in Her Majesty's service:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such pensions, compensations, or allowances, being those of reward and recompense for civil services authorized by Parliament, come within the provisions of the Act of the 6th year of Queen Anne, Chapter 7, which renders any person holding a pension from the Crown during pleasure incapable of being elected or of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons:

Be it therefore enacted; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. That pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26.

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act, shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

No Compensation to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and that no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any 3 or more of them.

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department

II. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows; (that is to say.)

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the (Civil Service and Consular.)

Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

XIII. Orders, &c., within what time to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. Section 6 of 57 George III, c. 65, respecting pensions to officers having had seats in Parliament.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

XV. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of monies voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

XVIII. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,* as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

XIX. It shall be sufficient, in citing this Act, to use the expression "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

(3.) An Act to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.†

39 and 40 Vic. c. 53.—11th August, 1876.

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1875, provision was made for the grant of special rates of pension to persons who had served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State in unhealthy places, and it is expedient to make further provision for the like purpose:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Unhealthy Places.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (in this Act referred to as the Treasury) may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration in the unhealthy place affected thereby, shall be the same as if it had not been made.

2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, two years' service in an unhealthy place shall be reckoned as service for three years, and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or less period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion.

Provided that nothing in this section—

(1.) Shall alter so much of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1859, as requires a service of ten years before an annual superannuation allowance can be granted; or

(2.) Shall, without the consent of the Treasury, apply to a person who was residing in an unhealthy place when he entered the permanent civil service of the State.

Supplemental.

3. Every order under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

4. This Act shall apply to persons who have retired from the public service since the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

5. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1876.

(4.) An Act to amend the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes.

50 and 51 Vic. c. 67.—16th September, 1887.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

(a.) In the actual discharge of his duty; and

(b.) Without his own default; and

(c.) By some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.‡

† For list of places declared to be unhealthy for the purposes of this Act, see page 281.

(Civil Service and Consular.)

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act, 1859, without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: Provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant, and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

(a.) The employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and

(b.) The remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and

(c.) He has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

6.*—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has committed the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

7.—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquisition or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.) Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance, is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

8.† On the death of a person to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government: and the expression "prescribed public department" means, as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intitled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

* The Rules drawn up by the Treasury under Section 6 were laid before Parliament in September, 1887. [337].

† By Treasury Minute of July 18, 1888, the Foreign Office was included in the List of Departments prescribed by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.

Treasury Warrant regulating the Grant of Gratuities and Allowances under Section I of the Superannuation Act, 1887.—September, 1887.

In conformity with the provisions of the 1st section of the Superannuation Act, 1887, we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby direct that any award of a gratuity or annual allowance made under the said section shall be subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

The award shall be calculated upon one or other of the following scales, which shall respectively apply to :—

- I. Established officers of prisons or criminal lunatic asylums injured by the violence of a prisoner or lunatic; or established officers of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- II. All civil servants not falling under the above description, and also all hired persons employed in a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- III. All other hired persons employed in a public department.

SCALES I. and II.

To the retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service, shall be added an allowance not exceeding the under-mentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz. :—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

	Scale I.	Scale II.
Slightly impaired	Six sixtieths	Five sixtieths
Impaired	Twelve sixtieths	Ten sixtieths
Materially impaired	Eighteen sixtieths	Fifteen sixtieths
Totally destroyed	Twenty-four sixtieths	Twenty sixtieths

Provided that no award on Scale I. shall, together with any retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service exceed the amount of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less; and that no award on Scale II., shall, together with any retired allowance for which he would be qualified by length of service, exceed fifty sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less.

SCALE III.

- (a.) A gratuity not exceeding the undermentioned portion of the salary and emoluments of the injured man at the date of the injury, or 100l., whichever is less, viz. :—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

Slightly impaired	One third.
Impaired	Two thirds.
Materially impaired	The whole.

- (b.) When his capacity to contribute to his support is totally destroyed, he shall receive an annual allowance exceeding by fifteen sixtieths of his salary and emoluments the rate of retired allowance for which he would have been qualified by length of service if he had been a civil servant, provided that the total award shall not exceed forty-five sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less.

An award under any of the above scales shall be so much less than the usual amount as the Treasury shall think reasonable, in case—

- (a.) The usual amount exceeds by not less than 100l. a year the rate of retired allowance for which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him; or

- (b.) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires; or
- (c.) The injured man is 55 years of age or upwards at the date of the injury; or
- (d.) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF MEN KILLED WHILE IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

An award shall be on one or other of the following scales, according as the deceased had been—

- I. An established officer of a prison or of a criminal lunatic asylum killed by a prisoner or lunatic; or an established officer of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, of which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- II. A civil servant not falling under the above description or a hired person employed in a manufacturing department as above.
- III. Any other hired person employed in a public department.

SCALE I.

Pension to each child until he or she attains the age of 15, not exceeding one sixth of the rate which might be granted to the widow, but the aggregate of the children's pensions not to exceed the amount which might be granted to the widow.

SCALE II.

Pension to widow not to exceed ten sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10l. a year, whichever is greater; and Gratuity to children, not exceeding 1l., multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the time of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 10l. or more than 50l.

SCALE III.

Pension to the widow not exceeding eight sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10l., whichever is greater.

Gratuity to children not exceeding 16s., multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the date of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 8l., or more than 40l.

In the case of motherless children the award under any scale may be of twice the usual rate.

If the service of the deceased at the date of the injury was less than five years the award under any scale shall be:

To the widow a gratuity not exceeding one half of the salary and emoluments of the deceased.

To each child a gratuity not exceeding one twelfth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased; but the total gratuity to widow and children shall not exceed one year's salary and emoluments of the deceased.

MOTHERS OF MEN KILLED IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

If the deceased does not leave a widow, and if his mother was wholly dependent upon him for support, the award which might have been made to a widow may be made to the mother.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1889.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Eapagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden, Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1889.)

The comparative rank of Consular Officers, and of Officers in Her Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals and Rear-Admirals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors, Lieutenants, R.N., and Navigating Lieutenants of eight years' standing.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and other Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants.

Consular Officers will take rank in their respective grades amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in conformity with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents; viz.: Priority of seniority according to Official Title, and to Recognition.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1889.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

PAPERS SET AT A LIMITED COMPETITION FOR CLERKSHIPS IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE, 1882.*

DICTATION (Obligatory).

In writing from Dictation, attention should be paid to clear and legible handwriting, to correct spelling, and to proper punctuation.

At 10 o'clock, the troops silently quitted their ground and retired in excellent order, but bad fortune pursued the General throughout this campaign, baffling his prudence and thwarting his views, as if resolved to prove the unyielding firmness of his mind. A terrible storm of wind and rain mixed with sleet commenced as the army broke up from the position; the marks were destroyed and the guides lost the true direction; only one of the divisions happily gained the main road, the other two were bewildered and, when daylight broke, the rear columns were still near the camp. The fatigue, the depression of mind, occasioned by this misfortune, and the want of shoes, broke the order of the march and the stragglers were becoming numerous. Unfortunately, one of the Generals, commanding a leading division, thinking to relieve the men during a nocturnal halt, desired them to take refuge from the weather in some houses a little way off the road. Complete disorganization followed this imprudent act; from that moment it became impossible to make the soldiers of the division keep their ranks, plunder succeeded, the example was infectious, and what with real suffering and evil propensity encouraged by this error of inexperience, the main body of the army, which had encamped for six hours in the rain, arrived at their destination on the evening of the 9th of January in a state very discreditable to its discipline. The Commander-in-Chief, with the reserve and the cavalry, as usual, covered the march, in the course of which he ordered several bridges to be destroyed, but the engineers failed of success in every attempt.

The second passage set for Dictation was similar in character to the first.

COPYING (Obligatory).

Copy, on the form supplied, as much of the following, including the table of figures, as you can in half an hour, taking care to write as well as you can.

Statement of the Quantity of Spirits, in Taxable Gallons, Produced, and Withdrawn Tax-paid, and for Export, from Distillery Warehouses, with the amount of Tax paid on the Spirits withdrawn, during the months of July, August, September, and October, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1878.

It will be remarked that there is an increase of 5,808,457 gallons as compared with the amount on hand on the same date last year.

Receipts from fermented liquors for 1877 and 1878 show an increase of 456,262 dollars. In 1877 they were 9,480,789 dollars; and in 1878, 9,937,051 dollars.

The number of brewers paying these taxes in 1878 was 2,830; and the number of dealers in malt liquors was 9,499.

Answer

[The paper contained 7 other columns, similar to the above.]

ENGLISH COMPOSITION (Obligatory).

Time allowed, 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours.

In this Exercise attention should be paid to handwriting, spelling, punctuation, grammar, and style. Exercises will be valued according to quality rather than quantity, but should occupy at least two foolscap pages. Only one subject is to be attempted.

Write an essay on one of the following subjects:—

1. Coleridge, or Macaulay;
or,
2. The influence of Patriotism on Poetry.

PRÉCIS WRITING (Obligatory).

Time allowed, 3 hours.

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

1. Make a short Abstract, Schedule, or Docket of the several letters and other papers.
2. Draw up a Memorandum or Précis, i.e., a brief and clear statement of what passed, not letter by letter but in the form of a narrative.

N.B.—You are warned that both the Abstract and Précis are obligatory.

DIRECTIONS.

- (1.) The object of the Abstract, Schedule, or Docket is to serve as an Index. It should contain the date of each letter; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and, in as few words as possible, the subject of it. The merits of such an Abstract are (1) to give the really important point or points of each letter, omitting everything else; (2) to do this briefly; (3) distinctly; and (4) in such a form as readily to catch the eye.
- (2.) The object of the Memorandum or Précis, which should be, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative, is that any one who had not time to read the original letters, might, by reading the Précis, be put in possession of all the leading features of what passed. The merits of such a Précis are—(1) to show briefly but clearly the state of affairs and the positions occupied by the principal persons concerned in the correspondence; (2) to contain all that is important in the correspondence, and nothing that is unimportant; (3) to present this in a consecutive and readable shape, expressed as distinctly as possible, and as brief as is compatible with completeness and distinctness.

Brevity should be particularly studied.

The Abstract should occupy 1 or 2 pages only, or 3 at the most.

The Précis about 2 pages, or 3 at the most, of ordinary handwriting.

[The papers placed before the candidates were 20 letters with their enclosures (16 pages) extracted from "Papers on the affairs of Afghanistan, No. 7," presented to both Houses of Parliament in 1879 (C.—2401.)]

La vie est encore si facile à Venise! la nature si riche et si exploitable! La mer et les lagunes regorgent de poisson et de gibier; on pêche en pleine rue assez de coquillages pour nourrir la population. Les jardins sont d'un immense produit: il n'est pas un coin de cette grasse argile qui ne produise généreusement en fruits et en légumes plus qu'un champ en terre ferme. De ces milliers d'isolettes dont la lagune est semée, arrivent tous les jours des bateaux remplis de fruits, de fleurs et d'herbages si odorants qu'on en sent la trace parfumée dans la vapeur du matin. La franchise du port apporte à bas prix les denrées étrangères. La vie animale est donc le moindre sujet de dépense à Venise, et le transport des denrées se fait avec une aisance qui entretient l'indolence des habitants. Les provisions arrivent par eau jusqu'à la porte des maisons: sur les ponts, et dans les rues pavées, passent les marchands en détail. L'échange de l'argent avec les objets de consommation journalière se fait à l'aide d'un panier et d'une corde. Ainsi toute une famille peut vivre largement, sans que personne, pas même le serviteur, sorte de la maison. Quelle différence entre cette commodité existence et le laborieux travail qu'une famille, seulement à demi pauvre, est forcée d'accomplir chaque jour à Paris pour parvenir à dîner plus mal que le dernier ouvrier de Venise! Quelle différence entre la physionomie précoccupée et sérieuse de ce peuple qui se heurte et se presse, qui se crotte et se fait jour avec les coudes dans la cohue de Paris, et la démarche nonchalante de ce peuple vénitien qui se traîne en chantant et en se couchant à chaque pas sur les dalles chaudes des quais !

Mais voici le soleil couché, le jour baisse ; l'oublié de regarder, ou je regarde vaguement, en proie à une douce rêverie que vient accroître la cloche de l'église qui sonne la fin du jour ; les premières étoiles paraissent à travers le feuillage ; que sont ces étoiles ? Les plus savants astronomes nous disent à quelle distance les planètes sont de notre terre, ils savent lesquelles marchent et quelle route elles suivent ; mais voilà où se borne leur science, et, que de travaux, de soucis, d'inventions, de veilles, de calculs, il a fallu pour en venir là. Ces globes de feu sont-ils des mondes comme le nôtre ? Oh ! alors, mon ami, quelle plaisanterie que les voyages ! que signifie de faire plus ou moins de chemin dans un des globes plus nombreux peut-être que le sable de la mer qui gravitent autour du soleil. Vous serez bien fier quand vous aurez fait le tour de notre monde ; et il y a là-haut plus de mondes peut-être que vous n'aurez dans vos voyages soulevé de grains de poussière sous vos pieds, et ces mondes-là sont inabornables pour vous ; il y a de ces mondes si éloignés, que chacun d'eux ne forme à nos yeux qu'un grain impalpable d'une poussière lumineuse. Il y en a probablement, disent certains savants, qui sont si éloignés de nous, que leur lumière n'est pas encore arrivée à nous depuis l'origine de notre monde, quoique la lumière fasse quatre millions de lieues par minute. A la bonne heure ! voilà ce que j'appellé des voyages et des distances ; que signifient les deux ou trois mille lieues que vous aurez faites quand vous reviendrez ? Vraiment cela ne vaut pas la peine de se déranger.

The probability that any particular person shall ever be qualified for the employment to which he is educated, is very different in different occupations. In the greater part of mechanic trades, success is almost certain, but very uncertain in the liberal professions. Put your son apprentice to a shoemaker, there is little doubt of his learning to make a pair of shoes ; but send him to the study of the law, it is at least twenty to one if ever he makes such proficiency as will enable him to live by the business. In a perfectly fair lottery, those who draw the prizes ought to gain all that is lost by those who draw the blanks. In a profession where twenty fail for one who succeeds, that one ought to gain all that would have been gained by the unsuccessful twenty. The counsellor-at-law, who, perhaps at near forty years of age, begins to make something by his profession, ought to receive the retribution, not only of his own so tedious and expensive education, but of that of more than twenty others who are never likely to make anything by it. How extravagant soever the fees of counsellors-at-law may sometimes appear, their real retribution is never equal to this.

Dictation.

Il y eut jadis un navigateur anglais qui accomplit quelques voyages singulièrement audacieux. Les nations de l'Europe cherchaient à découvrir un chemin plus court pour aller aux Indes, soit en se dirigeant vers le nord, soit à travers le nouveau continent américain. Cet Anglais avait déjà fait deux voyages dans ce but, comme employé de Compagnies anglaises. A deux reprises, il avait navigué parmi les banes de glace, et, malgré le froid terrible, il était parvenu jusqu'à Spitzberg ; chaque fois, cependant, il avait dû retrorgrader, dans l'impossibilité où il se trouvait de pénétrer au-delà. Mais résolu et aventureux autant que jamais, toujours prêt à entreprendre quelque chose de nouveau, dû-il braver le soleil des tropiques ou les glaces du pôle, il continua de nourrir une idée fixe : trouver ce passage aux Indes que tant d'autres avant lui avaient cherché en vain. Le 4 avril 1609, la Compagnie hollandaise des Indes Orientales l'envoya une fois de plus à la découverte. A cette époque, les Hollandais étaient la grande nation commerciale du monde, et Amsterdam le centre du commerce européen. Il n'y avait pas en Hollande une seule forêt propre à fournir des bols de construction, et cependant cette contrée possédait plus de navires que toutes les nations de l'Europe ensemble.

Prædictiones vero et præsentationes rerum futurarum quid aliud declarant, nisi hominibus ea, quæ futura sunt, ostendi, monstrari, portendi, prædici ? After these victories, Camillus stood forth as the greatest general of his age. But he was accused of having appropriated to himself out of the spoils of Veii many articles of great value, particularly the brazen doors of the Temple of Juno, and of having announced too late that he had made a vow to offer the tenth part of the booty to the Pythian Apollo. It would be a vain disquisition to speculate here upon the guilt or innocence of Camillus; only we must not forget that every Roman general was justified in selecting a portion of the booty for himself; whether in this case Camillus took more than his share, we cannot decide. We must not believe that Camillus did this in secret; he certainly had the doors put on his own house; if he had intended to use them as metal, they would long since have been melted down.

Am 28. November besahen wir die Insel Tristan da Cunha in Sicht. In seltsamer Einsamkeit ragt der dunkle gigantische Fels aus den grünen Wogen des Oceans gegen Himmel. Ob die Insel bewohnt sei, war uns allen unbekannt. Um so größer war unsere Neugierde, dieses abgelegene Stüdchen Welt zu betreten. Deutlich erkannten wir, als wir uns der Insel näherten, mehrere Gebäude, auch einen in die steile Felsenwand gehauenen Pfad, aber Menschen sahen wir nicht; die Insel erschien wie ausgestorben. Doch nein, dort stieg aus einem der schwarzen Häuser Rauch auf, und endlich erschienen auch einige Männer. Wir winkten ihnen und schlangen unsere Axtge, sie kamen zu uns, und halfen uns bei der schwierigen Landung. Sie fragten uns, ob wir Walfischfänger seien, und als wir es verneinten, führten sie uns den steilen Pfad an der Klippe herauf auf ein Plateau, auf welchem die Wohnungen stanten. Plötzlich fesselte uns ein ganz unerwarteter Anblick. Ein hoher Greis, schwarz gefleibet, trat uns mit einer ältlichen Dame entgegen, und als er hörte, daß wir Deutsche seien, warf er die Hände empor und stürzte uns entgegen: „Landleute,“ rief er im besten Deutsch, „Landleute! Ist es denn möglich? Gott sei gerietien, der mich tieien Tag hat erleben lassen!“ Und wie außer sich vor Freude, umarmte er uns, nahm uns mit sich in sein Haus und erzählte uns seine höchst wunderbare Lebensgeschichte.

Alljährlich im Monat Mai, wenn der Frühling seine reiche Blütenpracht entfaltet, beginnt aus den hochgelegenen Bergdörfern der östlichen Schweiz eine friedliche Völkerverwanderung ganz eigenthümlicher Art, nämlich von Schaa ren von 8 bis 15 jährigen Kindern. Ihr Zug geht dem Lauf des Rheins entlang. Aus einer Gemeinde ziehen oft 20 bis 30 Kinder aus unter der Führung eines kaum fünfzehnjährigen Knaben. Bis an die Grenze der Gemeinde begleiten sie die Mütter und nehmen dann unter guten Mahnungen und Thränen Abschied. Die Väter sind meist schon zuvor in die Fremde gezogen. In jedem Dorfe, durch das die Kinderzucht zieht, wird Halt gemacht. Männer und Frauen kommen herbei, sich einen Jungen als Viehhirten, oder ein Kindermädchen auszuwählen. So wird die Schaar immer kleiner, je weiter sie sich von der Heimath entfernt. Gerade umgekehrt ist es bei der Heimkehr am Ende des Sommers. Da schwillt die Schaar, je näher sie dem Heimatdorfe kommt. Der spärliche Erwerb, den die Sommerarbeit in der Fremde gebracht, wird gewissenhaft der Mutter übergeben, die darauf den nöthigen Kleiderbedarf für die Kinder besorgt. So gewöhnen sich diese Leute früh an's Wanderleben. Sind sie erwachsen, dann gehen sie über Land und Meer. Aber ihr Herz bleibt doch im Hochland. Zu Hause sterben wollen sie alle.

On being summoned to the Earl's presence, Wayland Smith told his former tale with firmness and consistency. "It may be," said the Earl, "thou art sent by those who have begun this work, to end it for them; but bethink, if I miscarry under thy medicine, it may go hard with thee." "That were severe measure," said Wayland, "since the effect of medicine, and the end of life, are in God's disposal. But I will stand the risk. I have not lived so long underground to be afraid of a grave." "Nay, if thou be'st so confident," said the Earl of Sussex, "I will take the risk too, for the learned can do nothing for me. Tell me how this medicine is to be taken." "That I will do presently," said Wayland; "but allow me to make condition that, since I incur all the risk of this treatment, no other physician shall be permitted to interfere with it." "That is but fair," replied the Earl; "and now prepare your drug."

GERMAN DICTATION.

Das Theater war geträngt voll. Das neue Stück, das gespielt wurde, hatte eine große Menge Leute herbeigezogen. Da erschall plötzlich von verschiedenen Seiten der Ruf „Feuer!“ Es kam von dem Hintergrunde der Bühne und erstakte rasch den Vorhang, der in wenigen Secunden in hellen Flammen stand. Die Bestürzung und Verwirrung war unbeschreiblich. Alles drängte nach den Ausgängen, deren zum größten Unglück nur wenige waren. Das Gas wurde ausgelöscht, um die Verbreitung des Feuers zu hindern. Aber das half nichts. Im Gegentheil, die Verwirrung wurde nur um so größer, da es nun in den Gängen und auf den Treppen ganz finster war. Man konnte die Ausgänge nicht mehr finden. Durch die von allen Seiten her drückende Menschenmasse wurden die Vortreter die Treppen hinabgestürzt. Nur Wenige gelangten unbeschädigt bis zu den Eingängen, und von da auf die Straße. Andere, die ein Fenster erreichen konnten, stürzten sich auf die Straße hinab. Viele wurden im Wetzänge erdrückt, Andere fanden ihren Tod in den Flammen, die Andere waren mehr oder weniger beschädigt.

Tout à coup, au-dessus de ce lit mouvant des brumes, je vis transpercer et surgir, comme une coque de navire en perdition, une tour noire, au faite de laquelle une voûte de corneilles s'ébattait en jetant de cris; deux autres tourelles sortirent peu à peu de l'ombre éblouie, comme si on les avait dépoignées l'une par l'autre de leur linceul de brume qui retombait à leurs pieds; puis le toit rouge d'un haut et large donjon carré; puis la longue façade grise d'un château démantelé, percé, irrégulièrement de fenêtres hautes ou basses, où le lierre des fossés se cramponnait par touffes aux grillages de fer. Les parapets éboulés de ces fossés trempaient par brèches dans l'eau stagnante qui servait d'abreuvoir aux beaufs et aux poulains; le pont-levis, dont les chaînes brisées et inutiles pendaient comme deux branches de gibet, était remplacé par une chaussée en pierre. Des charrettes dételées et des gerbes éparues en jonchaient le sol. Une paysanne en sabots jetait du grain aux poules sur les marches d'une porte en ogive, dont les écussons mutilés par le marteau de la révolution populaire ressemblaient à un stigmate blanc de boulet sur un mur de rempart. Une seule cheminée fumait en tourbillons d'une fumée noire et épaisse de fagots sur tout l'édifice. Les fenêtres, au lieu de réverbérer le soleil couchant sur des vitres, dégorgeaient par toutes leurs ouvertures on leurs lucarnes la paille et le foin de la dernière récolte. Des batteurs en grange faisaient entendre le bruit cadencé de leurs fléaux dans la grande salle des gardes.

Un soir nous aperçûmes, à quelque distance de notre campagne, un tourbillon de fumée. C'était le premier indice d'habitation que nous eussions rencontré depuis plusieurs jours. Nous nous dirigeâmes de ce côté, conduits par notre fidèle guide que nulle fatigue n'effrayait. Au haut d'un pic de roc, nous vîmes une tente de Lapon et un troupeau de rennes couché dans le ravin. C'était un charmant spectacle que cette quantité de rennes avec leurs peaux de toute couleur, leurs cornes serrées l'une contre l'autre comme les rameaux d'une épaissée forêt, les unes couvertes d'un léger duvet, d'autres nues et grises, d'autres qui venaient de perdre l'épiderme velu qui les enveloppe au printemps et qui étaient rouges comme le corail. Les chiens, gardiens attentifs du troupeau, annonçaient notre arrivée par leurs aboiements. Les rennes se levèrent et s'enfuirent comme des biches sur le penchant de la colline, en faisant entendre un léger craquement d'articulations qui ressemble au ptillement d'une fusée au à la détonation d'une machine électrique. Les Lapons vinrent au-devant de nous avec une expression de surprise qu'une demi-fiole d'eau-de-vie transforma aussitôt en bienveillance. La tente était habitée par deux familles qui avaient mis en commun leurs troupeaux, et s'en retournaient à petites journées passer l'hiver aux environs de Hautokeino, après avoir pêché sur les côtes. Les deux hommes portaient un vêtement en peau de renne sale, et leurs femmes n'étaient ni plus élégantes ni plus sobres.

Hampden and his friends had taken refuge in the city of London, the fastness of public liberty, and in those times, a place of at least as much importance as Paris during the French Revolution. The city, properly so called, now consists in a great measure of immense warehouses and counting-houses, which are frequented by traders and their clerks during the day, and left in almost total solitude during the night. It was then closely inhabited by three hundred thousand persons, to whom it was not merely a place of business, but a place of constant residence. This great capital had as complete a civil and military organization as if it had been an independent republic. Each citizen had his company; and the companies, which now seem to exist only for the sake of epicures and antiquaries, were then formidable brotherhoods, the members of which were almost as closely bound together as the members of a Highland clan. How strong these artificial ties were, the numerous and valuable legacies anciently bequeathed by citizens to their corporations abundantly prove. The municipal offices were filled by the most opulent and respectable merchants of the kingdom. The pomp of the magistracy of the capital was inferior only to that which surrounded the person of the sovereign. The Londoners loved their city with that patriotic love which is found only in small communities like those of ancient Greece, or like those which arose in Italy during the middle ages.

Dictation.

L'autre ouvrier, au contraire, est un soldat du travail. Depuis son enfance, il combat, en bataille rangée, contre la nature. Il prodigue sa sueur et son sang à vaincre le chêne et l'acier. Il laboure, il scie, il équivarrit, il rabote, il pélite dans ses doigts la matière; il gagne jour par jour, sans jamais laisser reposer l'arme du travail, une de ces grandes victoires de l'industrie humaine que je préfère aux victoires de l'empire. Il construit un vaisseau, et ce vaisseau sortira de ses mains, traversera les mers, ira promener la gloire du pavillon à travers les continents, la parole d'amitié du commerce, la conversation des races entre elles, et la paix perpétuelle enfermée dans un simple ballot, sans que la pensée de l'ouvrier reste associée à l'œuvre, sans que le nom du travailleur soit inscrit dans le travail. Le soldat peut dire: J'étais à cette victoire, et cette victoire le patronne partout. Par contre, l'ouvrier ne peut pas dire: J'étais à tel chantier, car un souvenir de chantier ne glorifie personne. Il passe sans assistance, il vieillit sans soutien, il tombe sans secours, il meurt souvent sans inhumation. La société n'a encore jeté aucune coupole dans les airs, pour l'abriter, au crépuscule de sa vie, contre les infirmités.

I.

Wie viele Menschen erlauben sich nicht, ungerecht zu sein, um großmütig sein zu können! Wie viele gibt es nicht, die, um einem Einzelnen wohl zu thun, die Pflicht gegen das Ganze verletzen, und umgekehrt; die sich eher eine Unwahrheit, als eine Inbetrachtung, eher eine Verletzung der Menschlichkeit als der Ehre verzeihen, die, um ihren Verstand auszufschmücken, ihren Charakter erniedrigen! Wie Viele gibt es nicht, die selbst vor einem Verbrechen nicht erschrecken, wenn ein seltener Zweck dadurch zu erreichen steht, die ein Ideal politischer Glückseligkeit durch alle Gräuelt der Anarchie verfolgen, Gesetze in den Staub treten, um für bessere Pläne zu machen, und kein Betenken tragen, die gegenwärtige Generation dem Elende preiszugeben, um das Glück der nachfolgenden dadurch zu beschaffen. Die scheinbare Uneigennützigkeit gewisser Tugenden gibt ihnen einen Anstrich von Reinigkeit, der sie dreist genug macht, der Pflicht ins Angesicht zu treten, und Manchem spielt seine Phantasie den seltsamen Betrug, daß er über die Moralität noch hinaus und vernünftiger als die Vernunft sein will.

II.

In der gesammten modernen Geschichte ist nur noch einmal nach glänzenden kriegerischen Erfolgen ein Friede geschlossen worden, der sich an schonender Milde dem Vertrage vom 20. November 1815 vergleichen läßt: der Prager Friede von 1866. Aber was in Prag aus dem freien Entschluß, aus der weisen Selbstbeschränkung des Siegers hervorging, das führte in Paris der gemeinsame Argwohn der Verbündeten gegen den kühnsten und ruhrgigsten der Siegesgenossen herbei. Der große Augenblick, da das seit Napoleon so unheimlich gestörte Gleichgewicht Europas wiederhergestellt, und den Deutschen ihr altes Erbtheil zurückgegeben werden konnte, ward veräunmt, weil alle Mächte des Orients und Westens sich bezeugten in dem Entschlusse, die Würde des Welttheils beständig niederzubalten. Durch schmerzliche Erfahrungen erkaufte sich die deutsche Nation die Erkenntniß, daß sie die Ehre des alten Rechts allein von ihrem eigenen guten Schwerte erwarten durfte. Alle die kühnen Weissagungen Hartenbergs, Humboldts und Gneisenaus gingen in Erfüllung. Die Franzosen empfanden nicht nur, wie billig, die niedrige Anwesenheit der fremden Truppen als eine unauslöschliche Schmach; sie nahmen auch den beisselosen militären Bricten für eine grausame Beleidigung. Nicht Saarbrücken oder Sautau lag ihnen am Herzen; was sie nicht vergessen konnten, war die Niederlage von Belle Alliance. Nach der Waterloo! dies blieb für Jahrzehnte der Schlagstein des französischen Volkes.

Translate into German :

I trust that at length the time is come when Parliament will no longer bear to be told that slave owners are the best law-givers on slavery—no longer suffer our voice to roll across the Atlantic in empty warnings and fruitless orders. Tell me not of rights—talk not of the property of the planter in his slaves. I deny his right—I acknowledge not the property. The principles, the feelings of our common nature, rise in rebellion against it. Be the appeal made to the understanding or to the heart, the sentence that rejects it is the same. In vain you tell me of laws that sanction such a claim! There is a law above all the enactments of human codes—the same throughout the world—the same in all times. Such as it was before the daring genius of Columbus pierced the night of ages—opening to one world the sources of power and wealth, to another all unutterable woes. It is the law written by the finger of God on the heart of man; and by that law men shall reject with indignation the wild phantasy that man can hold property in man.

LORD BROUGHAM.

DICTATION.

In der Geschichte ist Gement kein großer Charakter, er ist es auch im Trauerspiele nicht. Hier ist er ein wohlwollender, heiterer und offener Mensch, Freund mit der ganzen Welt, voll leichtsinnigen Vertrauens zu sich selbst und zu Andern, frei und süß, als ob die Welt ihm gehörte, brav und unerschrocken, wo es gilt, dabei großmüthig, liebenswürdig und sanft, ein Charakter der schönen Ritterzeit, prächtig und etwas Prahler, sinnlich und verliebt, ein fröhliches Weltkind — alle diese Eigenschaften in eine lebendige, menschliche, durchaus wahre und individuelle Schilderung verschmelzen, die der vorzüglichsten Kunst nichts, auch gar nichts zu danken hat. Gement ist ein Held, aber auch ganz nur ein flämischer Held, ein Held des sechszehnten Jahrhunderts; Patriot, jedoch ohne sich durch das allgemeine Gend in seinen Freuden stören zu lassen; Riebhaber, ohne darum weniger Essen und Trinken zu lieben. Durch seine schöne Humanität, nicht durch Außersordentlichkeit, soll dieser Charakter rühren; wie sollen ihn lieb gewinnen, nicht über ihn erschauern.

CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF ENGLAND. (Obligatory.)

(BLACKSTONE AND HALLAM.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

1. Notice the chief ways in which the power of the Crown was shown under the Tudor Sovereigns?
2. Show that the struggle between the Crown and the Commons in the reign of James I. and in the reign of Charles I. down to the meeting of the Long Parliament was of a legal rather than a political character.

3. With what objects did Charles II. attack the Corporations, and especially the Corporation of London?
4. When was it settled that the House of Commons was to decide on the validity of election, but that the Courts of Law were to decide on the validity of the claim of an elector to vote?
5. What are the measures that have been at different times adopted to determine the duration or secure the frequency of Parliaments?
6. What were the points of constitutional law at issue in the trial of the Seven Bishops?
7. In what ways did the Habeas Corpus Act secure the liberty of the subject?
8. What are the chief forms which Local Government has assumed in England?
9. What concessions were made to Scotland in order to ensure its acceptance of the Act of Union?
10. What were the modes in which a censorship of the Press was exercised in England so long as such a censorship existed?

POLITICAL HISTORY OF EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES (1815-1860). (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

1. Connect the French intervention in Spain (1823) with the general political history of the time.
2. What were the circumstances in which the Peace of Adrianople (1829) was made, and what were the conditions imposed on Turkey?
3. Give a sketch of the history of Piedmont from the abdication of Victor Emmanuel (1821) to the outbreak of the war of 1849.
4. Describe and compare the leading features of the policies of Metternich, Guizot, and Palmerston.
5. What were the respective causes that led to the downfall of Charles X. and Louis Philippe?
6. What had been the chief incidents of the civil war in Portugal when Donna Maria was restored in 1833?
7. Give an account of the following incidents in the reign of the Emperor Nicholas:—(1) the conspiracy at the time of his accession; (2) the Polish insurrection; (3) the assistance given to Austria in Hungary; (4) the rupture with England and France, on which the Crimean war followed.
8. What motives may be supposed to have guided Prince Leopold in refusing the Crown of Greece and accepting the Crown of Belgium?
9. Describe the battles of the Alma and Inkermann.
10. What was the state of political parties in the United States when President Lincoln was elected in 1860?

POLITICAL ECONOMY (Obligatory.) (ADAM SMITH AND MILL.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

1. What are the chief points in which the "Wealth of Nations" has been supplemented or corrected by later writings? Select any one of these points for detailed comment.
2. "The demand for other things is for so much and no more, but there is always a demand for as much money as can be got."—(Mill.) "The quantity of gold and silver is in every country limited by the use which there is for those metals."—(Adam Smith.) Explain, and, if possible, reconcile these two statements.
3. Examine Mill's doctrine that temporary protection may be expedient in "young and rising nations." Which is the wiser way of encouraging trade in such a case—the establishment of protective duties or the donation of premiums for discovery and invention?
4. Compare the view of Adam Smith, that foreign trade is simply a vent for surplus home produce, with the view of Ricardo as explained by Mill.
5. According to the received economical doctrine the rent of land forms no part of the price of grain, or of the cost of production. Does it follow from this that one kind of land-tenure is as good for farming as another?
6. Give your reasons for supposing that the Bank Charter Act of 1844 is, or is not, a safeguard against commercial panic.
7. The Prime Minister of England receives as his official salary only half as much as the Lord Chancellor. Account for this on the principles laid down in the "Wealth of Nations" (Book I.).

8. What is meant by "Equality" as a canon of taxation? Is it better secured (a) by direct taxes, (b) by indirect taxes, or (c) by a combination of the two?
9. What views are indicated by the motto "laissez faire"? How far do we find an approach to them (a) in the "Wealth of Nations," (b) in Mill's "Principles of Political Economy"?
10. What do you consider to be the relation (a) between the rate of interest and the rate of profits, (b) between the rate of profits and the rate of wages.

"THE FOREIGN OFFICE LIST":

Forming a complete British Diplomatic and Consular Handbook. With Maps. Published annually. Price 6s.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell has graciously favoured J. T. Davenport with the following:—

"Extract of a despatch from Mr. Webb, H.B.M.'s Consul at Manilla, dated Sept. 17, 1864:—
"The Remedy most efficacious in its effects (in Epidemic Cholera) has been found to be Chlorodyne,
"and with a small quantity given to me by Dr. Burke I have saved several lives."

CAUTION.

CHLORODYNE.

Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. WOOD stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely; and mean no other than Dr. Browne's. —See "Times," July 13th, 1864.

The Public are therefore cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

This invaluable Remedy produces quiet refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Neuralgia, Diarrhoea, Rheumatism, Spasms, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From Dr. MONTGOMERY, late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in neuralgia, asthma, and dysentery; to it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering and when all other medicines had failed."

From W. VERSALUIS PETTIGREW, M.D.:—"I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in consumption, asthma, diarrhoea, and other diseases, and am most perfectly satisfied with the results."

From Mr. C. RICHARDS:—"Messina, Nov. 23, 1867. My father, the British Vice-Consul at this port, has spoken very highly of Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in his Report to the British Government of the Epidemic Cholera in Messina, 1867, and really its efficacy is wonderful."

CHLORODYNE, the GREAT REMEDY for CHOLERA.

(See Report in the "Times," September 6th, from the Malta Correspondent, who states, August 24th, that "108 cases and 81 deaths occurred at Messina; 50,000 people fled from the town, which is in a most deplorable condition; that Chlorodyne has been found most efficacious as a remedy, and a number of persons are reported to have been saved by its use.")

Now, as there are various imitations sold under the name of Chlorodyne, containing Indian hemp, morphia, &c., ingredients highly adverse to the cure of cholera, the public are cautioned against the use of any compound under the name of Chlorodyne unless it bears the name of Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE, who coined the word Chlorodyne to designate his wonderful discovery, which he fully tested for many years in Her Majesty's service before introducing it to the public, the wonderful success of which has given rise to various imitations, totally different to genuine Chlorodyne. See the decision of Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood, reported in the "Times," July 13th, 1864. The extraordinary medical reports on the efficacy of Chlorodyne render it a subject of most vital importance that the public should obtain the genuine, which is now sold under the protection of the Government of Great Britain, authorizing a stamp, bearing the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne," without which none is genuine.

Sold in bottles, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d., by all Chemists.

PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.

For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press, so little force is needed to work it, that the Press requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a Cam. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screwpress.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

				Quarto.	Foolscap.
				s. d.	s. d.
With Copying Book complete	7 0	10 6
" " " " and with Inkstand	...			9 0	12 6

Directions for Use.

To copy a letter or other writing, extend the book on a table or desk, with the case toward you; place your letter under a leaf of the book with the writing uppermost; wet the cloth, squeeze it as dry as possible with one hand, and spread it over the leaf. Lay the oiled paper over the cloth to prevent wetting the preceding leaf; roll the case on the table so as to furl the book tightly round it, and in five seconds you will have a perfect copy.

When the letter to be copied covers two or more sides of the sheet, a half sheet of plain paper placed between the written sides will prevent blotting.

Good copying ink should be used.

When one book is filled, it can be slipped out of the groove, and replaced by another.

THE CHROMOGRAPH.

THE CHROMOGRAPH is an ingenious invention which enables any one to produce a number of copies from MSS. written with a special ink supplied with the Apparatus, and is, therefore, invaluable to those who are often requiring reproductions of their letters, invitations, despatches, circulars, plans, or drawings, fifty fac-similes of which can be produced in a few moments, without any knowledge of Printing or Lithography being required. The Apparatus consists of two flat metal boxes lined with a gelatinous composition, which answers the same purpose as the stone in Lithographic Printing, and these cases are separable and close together in the shape of a book.

The MS. to be copied is written on any kind of paper, and with any pen (either steel or quill), with the ink supplied, and the writing or drawing, being perfectly dry, is placed face downwards on the composition and the hand passed lightly over it two or three times, the paper is then pulled gently off (in the same manner as shown in the illustration above), and a fac-simile counterpart of the writing or drawing will be found transferred to the composition. A sheet of paper of any kind is then laid upon the composition and smoothed down lightly with the hand, and after two or three seconds is withdrawn in the same manner as before mentioned, and a clear and perfect copy of the original will be found printed upon it. This operation is repeated as often as required, from eight to ten minutes only being required to produce forty to fifty copies.

Immediately the requisite number of copies are printed, fill the sponge supplied with the Apparatus with clean cold water, and rub the surface gently, and the writing will be speedily effaced, as easily, in fact, as pencil writing from the surface of a porcelain slate.

If the composition is at any time accidentally scratched or broken, it can be remelted by heating it and allowing it to cool, care being taken to prevent dust from settling on it when in a liquid state.

This Apparatus has been supplied and found most useful to Merchants, Secretaries, and most of H. M.'s Ambassadors, Consuls, and Agents abroad.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Peerage, Baronet-

AGE, KNIGHTAGE, &c., for 1889. 51ST EDITION. This Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage, incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders of the Knights Bachelors and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. Precedence.—This important subject has been fully dealt with, and the Lists may be relied on as authoritative. The Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood are placed according to their relative rank; and there is given a Scale of General or Social Precedence, and a List of the Muids of Honour to the Queen, with their relative Precedence. Tables of Precedence of Diplomatic Agents; Relative Rank of the Officers of the Navy and Army; and Precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire are also supplied. There will also be found official Lists of THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE, THE ROYAL ORDER OF VICTORIA AND ALBERT, THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA, THE VICTORIA CROSS, THE ALBERT MEDAL, and THE ROYAL RED CROSS. The heraldic department includes not only the engravings of the arms of both PEERS and BARONETS, but also the written blazon or descriptions. To this work is added a Key, or Comprehensive Alphabetical List, by means of which every titled personage, and many others, can be easily traced. Nearly 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s. (Published Annually.)

"While most other publications of the kind form most useful indexes to the living members of the Aristocracy, Sir Bernard Burke's handsome volume is perhaps the most useful and valuable companion to the student of English History."—Times.

"The foremost place among works of reference is claimed, almost by traditional right, by Sir Bernard Burke's 'Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage,' which still remains the Standard Authority as to Aristocratic Lineage."—Whitehall Review.

"Constant reference to the pages of 'Burke' enables us to testify to its invariable accuracy. For completeness and comprehensiveness on all matters connected with Titles of Honour it is unsurpassed."—Court Journal.

"An indispensable companion to all classes."—Illustrated London News.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland, being a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. SEVENTH EDITION. Thoroughly Revised throughout, 1886. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and, in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. In two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c. 2,088 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, General Armory

of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Comprising a registry of Armorial Bearings from the earliest to the present time. RE-ISSUE 1884, WITH ADDITIONAL SUPPLEMENT describing THE ARMS, &c., OF NEARLY ONE THOUSAND FAMILIES NOT INCLUDED IN THE PREVIOUS ISSUE. This work contains above 66,000 Blazons of the Arms of Families, Companies, Cities, &c., with mottoes arranged in alphabetical order. This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry," &c. 1,280 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d.

"The work may indisputably claim to be one great authority on all things heraldic."—Illustrated News.

"Its authority is unquestionable over the whole range of facts with which it deals; it is the most comprehensive collection ever presented to the world."—Saunders's Irish Daily News.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Dormant, Abeyant,

FORFEITED, AND EXTINCT PEERAGES of the British Empire. NEW EDITION, BROUGHT DOWN TO 1883. Comprising every Peerage created since the Conquest, that is now Extinct, Dormant, under Attainder, or in Abeyance, and tracing down the various dignities to their existing representatives. Illustrated by Steel Engravings of the Principal Arms. Royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s.

"By the publication of this splendid volume, Ulster King of Arms completes the structure of information which he has been so long engaged in rearing, and in whose construction he has displayed not only the accuracy and research of the herald, but the generalization, the appreciation of the historian."—Morning Post.

"Indispensable to the Army, Navy, and Auxiliary Forces."—Saturday Review.

"A more useful manual it would be difficult to find."—United Service Magazine.

"Rivis's 'Whitaker' in the completeness with which it deals with its subject. There appears to be no item of Service information which is not to be found in its pages, and it is sure to prove a most acceptable boon."—Whitehall Review.

"The first thing that strikes us, on looking at this Almanack, is astonishment that it has never occurred to any one to bring out such a book before. The more credit, therefore, to the gallant editor or editors who have at last given us an Almanack worthy of all the Services."—Army and Navy Magazine.

"THE SERVICE ALMANACK is the best shilling's worth of information connected with the Services we have seen for a long time. It contains a little of everything, and a good deal of many things. The 'Year's Journal,' and the 'Dictionary of Battles' are most useful for reference, and the list of the winners of all honours during the year a novel and excellent idea. The editing is excellent throughout."—United Service Gazette.
